

Family, Friends & Food

Food trucks lined the pathway at Oil Town with the familiar, mouth-watering aromas of funnel cakes, barbecue, and cotton candy. With lemonade, tea, and sno cones, various styles of nachos and potatoes, sandwiches with beef, chicken, or pork— there was something for every appetite.

Together again!

Happy Reunion,
Class of '66!

Just a few faces of Oil Town

"I really enjoyed the concerts — a real family environment. Definitely return next year! I didn't win the duck race, but it was fun watching."

—Lyron Cox

Events & Entertainment

Nothing says family fun like the annual turtle race. Thanks Benjy, for helping out!

Arm wrestling practice

Magician, Cedric Morley, amazes old and young alike with his illusions and slight of hand. Morley performed two shows for the elementary schools Friday morning.

*Mr. Morley,
Is there a rabbit in that bag?*

And they're Off! The 47th Annual No Name Creek Duck Race

The music is never a disappointment at Oil Town. Top quality performances. And loads of fun.
